

By participating you agree to the specific campaign terms and conditions

Important notes

- Installers can only submit solar projects that are finalized. Projects that are still running or that still need work (e.g. fixing or repairment) are excluded from participation.
- When a participating installer is selected by Esdec for a refund of the installed mounting construction, Esdec will first contact the installer to review the project plan used to install the Esdec mounting construction as final proof in order to refund the costs of the installed mounting construction.

Campaign terms and conditions

Scope and applicability:

- This campaign is an initiative of Esdec B.V. and is only applies to installers using our Esdec mounting solutions in the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany and the UK.
- The campaign is only valid in November and December 2023. During the campaign period installers are allowed to submit multiple solar projects but can win a refund one time only.
- There are no limits to the number of solar panels used in the submitted project, as long as the project has been finished and the mounting construction consists of Esdec mounting systems.
- Esdec channel partners in the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany and the UK can support this campaign by actively communicating it through their own marketing channels. In return, the channel partner is specifically mentioned by name in the campaign communication.

Intellectual property and data protection:

- Participating installers are solely responsible for ensuring the completeness and correctness of all information submitted to participate in this campaign.
- Participating installers also acknowledge and agree that Esdec shall process personal data (if any) submitted to participate in this campaign in accordance with Esdec's privacy statement as made available on the Esdec website, as the same may be varied from time to time.
